The Heart is a Wonderful Pump.
The valves of which open and shut seventy or eighty times per minute. If an alcoholic stimulant be taken into the blood the pump works much faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All the intoxicating nostrums advertised as "tonics," "renovators," "correctives," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and hence all intelligent Christians are thankful that Dr. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINCA MINUTICA—An Invigorant and Alterative without a sting—is everywhere supplanting these proprietary poisons.

REMEMBER—THE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.
—THIS EVENING—

Too quick.
The Carbonade, Quercus says that Capt. Halliday proved a little too quick for the miners at DuQuoin. Learning they proposed to strike upon the 1st of May, he gave 20 days notice that he would close his mine upon the day selected for the strike. The mine was closed.

To-night.
Every necessary preparation has been completed for the reception to be tendered Mr. Fulton and his bride at the St. Charles Hotel, this evening. It is expected that the reception will be one of the largest select gatherings of the season, and also one of the most enjoyable ones.

Notice, U. F. T.
The members of Cairo Council No. 6, United Friends of Temperance, are requested to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall, Tuesday May 11, at 7:30 o'clock. Punctual attendance is desired.

Narrow Gauge.
A Murphy-shore exchange says: "A party of Southern railroad men met in the office of the Cairo & St. Louis railroad on last Thursday, for the purpose of consulting in reference to a proposed system of Southern narrow gauge roads, to have their terminal at Cairo. The results of the meeting are not yet made public."

Notice.
The committee having the complimentary party to Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Fulton in charge, request us to state that dancing will positively commence at 9 o'clock. At 10 o'clock, an opportunity will be offered those who wish to attend the Strawberry Festival at White & Green's old stand, corner of Sixth street and Ohio levee.

Strawberry Festival.
The ladies of the Episcopal church will give a grand supper and strawberry festival at the store formerly occupied by Messrs. White and Green, on Ohio levee, corner of Sixth street, on Tuesday evening next.

The fine supper, which will be served throughout the entire evening, will be ready at six o'clock. All are cordially invited to take supper at the festival instead of at their homes on that evening.

More Small Pox.
Small pox is again on the increase. Two new cases are reported having broken out since last Saturday, one of which is located on Nineteenth street, and the other in the Pilot House, on Washington Avenue. The case in the upper part of town is that of a young colored boy about twelve years of age, named Albert Freeman, while that in the Pilot House is a negro man.

The Festival.
The congregation of the Church of the Redeemer, have, we are pleased to learn, perfected their arrangements for the strawberry festival to be given by them at White & Green's old stand, corner of Sixth street and Ohio levee, this evening. Supper will be served from six o'clock until a late hour, and will be composed of every choice and delicious edible the market affords, at the most reasonable prices. The festival should be largely patronized by the people of Cairo, as the object for which it is gotten up is a worthy one.

Gored by a Cow.
Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ghio's little child, about four years of age, was playing at the edge of the sidewalk on the levee, near Fourth street, when a young short horned cow, walking past, gored it in the face, raising it off its feet, and as it fell to the ground, was about to attack it again, when a colored man ran to its assistance. The sharp horn had penetrated the left cheek to the bone, cutting a gash about an inch and a quarter long. The little thing was nearly frightened out of its wits, and suffered greatly from the wound, but bore the pain and submitted to the dressing of the wound like a little woman.

SEA-SICK.

How it Made Maltory Religious, and Biggs Poetical.

The sea-sick people on the schooner that was storm-tossed and nearly wrecked between Cairo and Mound City, on Sunday, had religious services when the danger was the greatest.

"I regret to say, my listeners," said the captain, "that the jig's about up. If you have anything to say to the Lord, you had better say it now."

Then all fell to their devotion, and Mr. Maltory was heard to say:

"O, Lord! if you can get me out of this I would be much obliged. I didn't intend to take a through ticket when I got aboard, and if you will just punch it and let me lay over for a few years longer, time will be the glory forever. Leave, Amen!"

At this moment, while the supplications of the other fright-stricken people were ascending, the voice of Mr. James Biggs, like that of the Sweet Singer of Israel, was heard above the roar of tempest, shouting, to the tune of the Devil Bunting Tan Bark, this beautiful hymn:

"O, Lord! I've been a wicked Barge,
I own the corn to-day;
I've stumbled on in thoughtless style
Out of the narrow way;
But now a-sailing on the deep,
Sea-sick I see my crime,
And asking pardon from the wave
I raise to thee this time:
O, save me from the watery deep!
I wash do detect!
Give me to walk on land again,
Or Schlitz, for a glass of Beer,
Or Schlitz, for a glass of Beer,
And I will be a righteous Barge.
In goodness firmly set,
Will walk along the Narrow Way
Straight and firm, you bet,
So, Lord, be kind!
Let down the wind!
And calm the ruffled deep, deep, deep—
Rock these rough waves to sleep, sleep, sleep,
And calm the ruffled deep."

The BULLETIN short-hand reporter was here attacked with sea-sickness and disabled from taking further notes.

STRAWBERRIES.
R. E. CREAM, CAKE, ETC.,
AT THE EPISCOPAL FESTIVAL.

Fourth of July.
The Murphy-shore Independent says: "Cairo papers are out in double-loaded columns urging the citizens of that city to prepare for a grand celebration on the 4th of July. A free ride over the narrow gauge is spoken of. It is a little early, but there is nothing like having plenty of time. We are in for anything that is free, and any celebration or excursion over the narrow gauge will be largely patronized by our citizens. The popularity of that road, and the reputation of the employees are such that will insure a good turn out from here any time. We say whoop her up, and let's have a big time at Cairo on the 4th."

For Sale.
Seventy-five wheelbarrows for sale cheap. Apply to John Caney, corner of Twelfth street and Commercial Avenue, 402-5-8-30.

At The Episcopal Festival To-Night:
Strawberries; Few Cream Cakes; LEMONADE.

Trains Delayed.
For the first time that we remember of there is a hitch on the C. A. & T. R. R. The train due here at 4 a. m. yesterday, stranded somewhere between Poplar Bluff and Charleston, and had not been heard from last night. Conductor Conley took the responsibility of running a train from Charleston to Cairo at noon yesterday, by which he earned the everlasting gratitude of a dozen passengers who had grown weary of waiting for the lost train. Mr. Conley proposed going with a train and flags from Charleston towards Poplar Bluff last night to assist the others if he could find them. There being no telegraph lines along the road, this is the only means for ascertaining the extent of the accident, it there has been one. We were informed in Charleston, yesterday, that a bridge had been burned on the Iron Mountain road near Belmont, and a train derailed on the same line near St. Louis, by a wash in the track, caused by the heavy rains of Sunday.

Notice—Lumber.
Having again established myself in the Lumber business, at the Wall & East Mills, I am prepared to sell lumber of all kinds, laths and shingles at wholesale and retail, and to offer ex-rates inducements at all times, guaranteeing the lowest possible prices. 405-4-11-1m. J. S. MCGAREY.

"A LIFE ON THE OCEAN WAVE."

A Voyage on the Muddy Deep That Pleasure Excursion Last Sunday.

Three Hours Sailing in a Coasting Schooner.

For several days past, a trim little Schooner has been riding at anchor at our wharf, near the foot of Eighth street, undergoing some repairs, causing many of our curious citizens to marvel at its diminutive size and its probable destiny. The repairs having been completed on Saturday, the captain of the craft was induced by Mr. James Maltory and others, to take her on a pleasure excursion to Mound City and return, and that report being spread, a goodly number of pleasure-lovers assembled at the levee on last Sunday noon, for the purpose of embarking on the frail craft. The sky had become cloudy, and indications of a speedy rain prevented many a one from participating. By 2 o'clock, p. m., Captain Maltory's croaking voice resounded from the ship: "All aboard for Maltory's Cave!" This acted like a charm. Some 60 people rushed aboard. Capt. J. DeLacoe, the commander of the schooner, appeared upon the poop, and at his commands, the sails were hoisted promptly, and with a good sou'wester breeze, she danced lightly out into the stream. All aboard the vessel felt very brave, and those upon the levee, who thought discretion the better part of valor, soon had an opportunity of congratulating themselves upon their wise decision in staying at home; for in a few moments the clouds unburdened themselves of their contents, and those of the passengers, who had neither umbrellas or overcoats were speedily huddled together in every corner, seeking shelter from the storm. A stiff breeze had sprung up by this time, and the schooner dashed wildly up the stream before the wind, rocking to and fro, and throwing the land-lubbers from one side of the ship to the other. When opposite Mound City, a perfect hurricane had begun to blow, and in endeavoring to "about ship," and tacking from shore to shore, the little vessel was like a plaything in the hands of the mighty storm. The excitement of the frightened voyagers had become fearful by this time, and the tossing of the schooner began to tell its tale of woe. Some were on their knees praying and some in the hull cursing, while the inner-man of others was revolting against the unpropitious journey, and was casting forth all they had deposed for weeks past. Some had crowded into the little cabin, and stood in such close proximity, that when Fred. Hans, the original cheap store man, began to turn his inside out, he vomited several onions and a whole bunch of radishes into Jim Maltory's coat pocket; Gus Botto and a few others were hanging over the taffrail, casting their nite upon the turbulent waters of the Ohio, and groaning with fear and dizzy sickness. One of our young commission merchants prayed that the vessel would be beached instantly, and he would be willing to pay the whole of its cost. Another young gentleman offered $20 to be landed at Mound City, while Jim Biggs was looking for a sharp jack-knife to cut down the madman. The excitement was fearful, there were but few aboard whose cheeks had not turned pale and green, and they only felt relieved when the captain, who had retained a steady coolness throughout the trip, had properly brought her before the wind again; at the sound of "run with your fore-sails and jibs," "spread out the top-sail," "down with your halyards," "clot's well," "steady," their faces assumed once more a cheerful look. Pipes were whipped out, cigars lit, jokes cracked at the expense of a few of the sea-sick, and soon the little schooner "Wave" sailed trimly into the Cairo harbor, her pilot effecting as pretty a landing as any steamboat pilot ever did. The voyage has caused much amusement to those who stayed at home, and many of the passengers who had never travelled in a sail ship before are content with their experience and vow never again to risk the mighty deep.

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., MONDAY EVENING, May 10, 1875.

The weather today was clear, warm and pleasant; after the heavy storm of wind and rain of yesterday, the change is an agreeable one.

The feeling in the corn market is better, and the week opens with a better prospect than for some time. Prices rule as before, but advices from New Orleans are more favorable for speculators. Transactions since our last report have been unusually large.

Oats are at a stand-still, nothing at all doing.

Hay is plenty for the demand.

Flour is steady and firm with no stocks on hand, and dealers anxious for supplies to fill orders.

Choice butter is scarce and firm. Eggs all sell at quotations. The market is bare of poultry and demand active.

The rivers are falling slowly.

THE MARKET.
Our friends should bear in mind that the prices here given are usually for sales from first hands in round lots. In filling orders and for broken lots it is necessary to charge an advance over these figures.

FLOUR.
The market is firm and active, and stocks of all kinds fall short of the demand. Prices are stiff and unchanged. We note sales of 500 barrels, $5.67; 100 barrels choice X X X Spring, $5.60; 1050 barrels choice X X X Spring, $5.60; 300 barrels various grades, $5.50; 300 barrels various grades, $5.50; 100 barrels Super, $5.75; 200 barrels X, $5.10; 200 barrels various grades, $5.60.

HAY.
Receipts are light, but more than is wanted. There is no demand for any kind. We note sales of 1 car choice timothy delivered, $21; 2 cars choice mixed delivered, $21.

CORN.
We note a better feeling and a large increase in the demand for corn. Transactions have been moderately large today as compared with the last few weeks. This is owing to a change for the better in southern markets that gives a margin for speculation. Sales were 6 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 80c; 1 car No. 2 white mixed in sacks delivered, 82c; 1 car No. 2 mixed in bulk on track, 75c; 1 car No. 2 white mixed in bulk on track, 76c; 4 cars No. 2 white mixed in sacks delivered, 82c; 1 car No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 80c; 5 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 82c; 1 car No. 2 white in sacks delivered, 82c; 3 cars No. 2 white in sacks delivered, 82c; 1 car No. 2 white in bulk on track, 76c; 4 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 80c; 5 cars No. 2 white in sacks delivered, 82c; 5 cars on orders at higher figures.

OATS.
There is a fair supply in the market held at 60c to 70 cents in sacks, but there is no demand at all, and none selling at any price. We have no sales to report.

MEAL.
The market is well supplied and very quiet. Choice country steam dried sold at $3.65. Choice city meal is quoted 10 cents higher. We note sales of 100 barrels steam dried delivered $3.65; 200 barrels city $3.75; 30 barrels.

BRAN.
Quiet, plenty, dull and declining, describe the condition of this branch of the market. We note sales of 4 cars in sacks delivered $22.

BUTTER.
The demand for choice is steady and active and receipts lights. No choice dairy butter offering. Common is overstocked and dull. We note sales of 10 packages good Northern 24c to 25c; 6 packages good Southern 18c to 20c; 6 packages cooking butter 15c; 5 tubs choice Northern 20c; 20 packages choice Northern 20c; 10 tubs Northern 22c.

EGGS.
The market is active and receipts are all taken on arrival. The supply falls short of the demand. Sales were 10 cases, shippers count 13c; 600 dozen 13c; 500 dozen 13c; 600 dozen 12c to 14c.

CHICKENS.
Receipts all find ready sales on arrival. A few couples of choice hens sold at $1 but $3.75 about outside quotations. Sales were 2 couples choice hens, $3.75; 2 couples choice mixed, $3.50; 3 couples choice hens; $4.60 couples choice mixed, $3.50; 6 couples choice hens, $3.75.

APPLES.
The market is bare and there is considerable inquiry for choice. Receipts would find ready sale.

ORANGES AND LEMONS.
Steady and unchanged. We note sales of 10 boxes oranges, $5; 10 boxes lemons, $7.

POTATOES.
There are none in market, and considerable inquiry for choice. Receipts would sell readily at 60c to $1.

The Old Reliable.
I hereby announce to the public that I am better prepared than ever to accommodate my patrons at the Central Hotel, on Sixth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues. I have taken a partner in the hotel business, Mrs. Appleman, who has had considerable experience in that line, and will not fail to make guests feel at home. The table will always be supplied with the best market affords, served up in the most palatable manner. Board and lodging per week, $4.50; single meals, 25c; to be had at all hours. I have also in connection with my hotel, a first-class barber shop, and am prepared to give customers a good shave, haircut, shampoo, etc. I will run three chairs, and have employed two artists who understand their business. Shaving, 10 cents; shampooing, 20 cents; and hair cutting, 25 cents. Give me a call. 5-8-1m.

RIVER, WEATHER AND BUSINESS.
The river last evening was 34 feet, 7 1/2 inches on the gauge, having fallen 22 1/2 inches during the previous 48 hours. The rivers are falling at Nashville, Evansville, Pittsburg and St. Louis, but rising at Louisville and Cincinnati.

The weather is clear and hot again. The storm of Sunday morning was pretty general north of us, and buildings were burned by lightning at Evansville and several other cities. The wind was so heavy at Commerce as to part two 6 inch hawsers for the Belle Memphis. Half stones fell at Gallatin of such weight as to cut holes through the canvas on the hurricane deck of the Idlewild.

ITEMS OF CARGOES.
—The Garrett had a tow of iron ore.
—The Alf. Stevens has a good trip for the Old river.
—The Chas. Brown returned with coal to St. Louis.
—The Shirlock had a very fair trip for the Old river.
—The Evansville packets brought out light cargoes, owing partly to the bad weather encountered.

Upward bound Anchor line packets had very slim cargoes, but those outward bound were well laden.
—The Cherokee and Belle Shreveport were deeply laden for New Orleans. The Shreveport did not land here.

GENERAL ITEMS.
—The party of 50 or 60 gentlemen from this city, who made the excursion trip on the Schooner Wave on Sunday afternoon are offering a reward for the bodies of the persons who wrote "A Life on the Ocean Wave," and "Oh! Give Me a Home by the Sea."

Among the passengers on the steamship Schiller, wrecked off Solly Isles, in the British Channel, were about 30 people from Highland, Illinois, and it is supposed that besides Mr. John Supplinger, wife and three children, and Michael Weidman, were also, Hon. Henry Weidman, a member of the last Illinois General Assembly, and family.

The following civil rights decision is from the Vicksburg Herald: "A short time ago a negro woman went on board the Anchor Line steamer Capitol City, at Greenville, Mississippi, and demanded cabin passage. The clerk, Mr. Dietrich, assigned her to a state room specially provided for colored passengers, but the aristocratic lady insisted upon being stowed away among the white people, and upon the refusal of the clerk to comply with her demands, she caused him to be arrested under the civil rights bill. The trial was had a few days ago before U. S. Commissioner W. H. Bolton, at Greenville, who decided that the law had not been violated, and that the officers of the steamboat had a perfect right to dispose of and locate their passengers as they thought best."
